

Short C.V. Of

Nabila Farhin

Nabila Farhin is a senior lecturer in the Department of Law at East West University and an advocate in the Supreme Court of Bangladesh. Previously, she served in the Judge Advocate General's Office, Bangladesh Army as an officer. She also worked with Transparency International Bangladesh (TIB) and Bangladesh Legal Aid and Services Trust (BLAST). Ms. Farhin completed her LLB (Hons) (Merit position 1st) and LLM (thesis) (Merit position 3rd) from the University of Chittagong, Bangladesh. She has an MSS in Industrial Relations and Labour Studies from the Institute of Social Welfare and Research, University of Dhaka and a Diploma in Economic, Social and Development Rights from Kathmandu School of Law, Nepal. Ms. Farhin has received several awards and research grants. She published journal articles and book chapters focusing on labour rights, gender rights, and climate justice and attended multiple national and international conferences. A detailed list of all her publications is available on her website: <https://flass.ewubd.edu/law-department/faculty-view/nabilafarhin>.

Nadia Rahaman

Nadia Rahaman is currently a Senior Lecturer at the Department of Law, East West University. She previously served as a faculty at the Department of Law and Human Rights at the University of Asia Pacific. She did her LL.B. and LL.M. from the Department of Law, University of Dhaka. She has interned with various organizations, including the International Crimes Tribunal-Bangladesh (ICT-BD), Bangladesh Legal Aid and Services Trust (BLAST), US Agency for International Development (USAID), and the South Asian Institute for Advanced Legal and Human Rights Studies (SAILS). Currently, Ms. Rahaman is engaged with Empowerment through Law of the Common People (ELCOP), a voluntary, non-governmental, and non-profit organization focusing on human rights education, research, and training. She published book chapters, journal articles, conference proceedings etc. on reputed national and international platforms. Her research interest is diverse, international law being one of them. She is currently affiliated with the Commonwealth Legal Education Association (CLEA) and the Bangladesh Law Association (BLA).